2022 BATTLE CREEK INCOME TAX RETURN FORM CHANGES

A form has been deleted, BC-COV Non-Resident Wage Allocation Stay At Home Orders Implications. This form is no longer required for non-residents who allocate income earned inside & outside the city. See Nonresidents - Wage Allocation.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

If you had Battle Creek taxable income greater than the total of your personal and dependency exemptions, you must file a tax return — even if you did not file a federal tax return. See Exemptions Schedule for more information on your allowable exemptions. You are required to file a tax return and pay tax even if your employer did not withhold Battle Creek tax from your paycheck. You will be required to make estimated income tax payments if you work for an employer not withholding Battle Creek tax from your 2022 wages.

ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS

When your total income tax is greater than the amount of tax withheld plus other credits by $100 or more, you may be required to make quarterly estimated tax payments. File Form BC-1040ES (available on our website) by April 30 of the tax year and pay at least one-fourth (¼) of the estimated tax. The remaining estimated tax is due in three equal payments on June 30 and September 30 of the tax year and January 31 of the following year. Adjust the remaining quarterly payments if your income increases or decreases during the year.

Failure to make required estimated tax payments or underpayment of estimated tax will result in assessment of penalty and interest. If you have made estimated tax payments and do not owe more tax for the year, you still must file a tax return.

DUE DATE & EXTENSIONS

Returns are due on or before May 01, 2023. If a due date falls on a weekend or holiday, the due date becomes the next business day. The due date of the annual income tax return may be extended for a period not to exceed six months. To apply for an extension, file Form BC-4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File an Individual Income Tax Return. Applying for a federal extension does not satisfy the requirement for filing a Battle Creek extension. Application for an extension must be made and the tentative tax due must be paid (MCL 141.664). Filing an extension with payment is not a substitute for making estimated tax payments.

An extension does not extend the time for paying the tax due.

When an extension form is filed and the balance due is paid, it may be assumed that the extension is automatically granted unless otherwise notified. Interest and penalty is charged on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted. Penalty may be waived by the Income Tax Administrator if the tax paid by the original due date is not understated by more than 5% of tax or the taxpayer is able to show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.

AMENDED RETURNS

File amended returns using the BC-1040. Clearly mark AMENDED at the top of the return. Attach a copy of the original filed return. If a change on your federal return affects Battle Creek taxable income, you must file an amended return within 90 days of the change and pay the tax due. All schedules supporting the changes should accompany the filing. Every change must be explained. Mail amended returns to: Battle Creek City Income Tax, PO Box 1657, Battle Creek, MI 49016-1657.

CHARGES FOR LATE PAYMENTS

All taxes remaining unpaid after the due date are subject to interest at the rate of 1% above the adjusted prime rate on an annual basis and the penalty at a rate of 1% per month, not to exceed a total penalty of 25% of the tax. The minimum charge for interest and penalty is $2.00.

DISCLAIMER

These instructions are interpretations of the Battle Creek Income Tax Ordinance, MCLA 141.601 et seq. The City of Battle Creek Ordinance will prevail in any disagreement between these instructions and the Ordinance.

DEDUCTIONS SCHEDULE

You may deduct amounts that directly relate to income that is taxable by Battle Creek, prorating where necessary. Allowable deductions include the following line number items:

Line 1 – Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Contributions Contributions to an IRA are deductible to the same extent deductible under the Internal Revenue Code. Attach federal Schedule 1 and evidence of contribution, which includes, but is not limited to, one of the following: a copy of receipt for IRA contribution, a copy of federal Form 5498, a copy of a cancelled check that clearly indicates it is for an IRA contribution. Line 2 – Self-Employed SEP, SIMPLE and Qualified Plans Self-employed SEP, SIMPLE and qualified retirement plan deductions may be entered on page 2, Deductions Schedule, line 2.

Line 3 – Employee Business Expenses

Employee business expenses are deductible only when incurred in the performance of service for an employer and only to the extent not reimbursed by the employer. Meal expenses are not subject to the reductions and limitations of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Battle Creek Income Tax Ordinance meals must be incurred while away from home overnight on business.

BUSINESS EXPENSES ARE LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING:

Line 5 – Alimony Paid Separate maintenance payments, alimony, and principal sums payable in installments (to the extent includable in the spouse's or former spouse's adjusted gross income under the federal Internal Revenue Code) and deducted on the federal return are deductible. Child support is not deductible. Attach copy of federal Schedule 1.

NOTE: The above deductions are limited to the amount claimed on your federal return, except meals. The deductions are limited by the extent they apply to income taxable under the Battle Creek Income Tax Ordinance. Part-year residents must allocate deductions the same way they allocate related income.

Line 6 – Renaissance Zone The Renaissance Zone deduction may be claimed by: a qualified resident domiciled in a Renaissance Zone; an individual with income from rental real estate located in a Renaissance Zone; and an individual proprietor or a partner in a partnership that has business activity within a Renaissance Zone. Individuals who qualify for the deduction must attach Schedule RZ of BC-1040 to their return to claim the deduction. Residents are not qualified to claim the deduction until they have been domiciled in a Renaissance Zone for 183 consecutive days. Individuals are not qualified to claim the Renaissance Zone deduction if they are delinquent for any Michigan or Battle Creek taxes. A Battle Creek income tax return must be filed to qualify and claim this deduction. Schedule RZ is available at www.battlecreekmi.gov under Income Tax Forms, Individual Returns, within the 1040 booklet. ## PART-YEAR RESIDENTS

If you had income taxable as a resident and as a nonresident during the year, you must file as a part-year resident. Part-year residents compute the amount of their tax on Schedule TC. Complete the form using the instructions on the Schedule TC and the resident and nonresident Instructions.

Income is allocated according to the residency status for each item of income. Use the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule (Attachment 2) to report wages from all employers. If taxpayer or spouse worked both in and outside of Battle Creek for any employer when a nonresident during the year, use the Part-year Resident Wage allocation instructions for residents and nonresidents as a guide to allocate wages. Use the Excluded Wages and Tax Withheld Schedule on page 2 to report excluded wages and Battle Creek tax withheld. Schedule TC is available on the city website: www.battlecreekmi.gov under Income Tax Forms, Individual Returns.

Sch. TC, Line 20a – Losses transferred between columns C and D If Schedule TC, line 20a, column C reports a resident loss and line 20a of column D reports income, or vice versa, an adjustment may be made to offset the loss against income in the other residence status. If line 20a, column C reports a resident loss, enter the amount of the loss on line 20b, column C, as a positive amount and in column D as a negative amount. This adjustment is limited to the amount of income in line 20a, column D. If line 20a, column D reports a nonresident loss, enter the amount of the loss on line 20b, column D as a positive amount and in column C enter one-half of the nonresident loss in column C as a negative amount. The column D amount of this adjustment is limited to twice the amount of income on line 20a, column C.

If line 20c, column C or column D is a negative amount, it is the net operating loss allowed to be carried forward in its status as a resident or nonresident. A resident loss is allowed to be claimed as a net operating loss deduction against future income in either resident or nonresident status.

A nonresident net operating loss is allowed to be claimed as a net operating loss deduction against future nonresident income, or against future resident income at one-half of the amount of the nonresident net operating loss.

RESIDENTS

Line 1 – Wages, Salaries, Tips, Etc. The 1st page of the federal tax return must be attached to all resident tax returns. All W-2 forms showing wages and Battle Creek tax withheld must be attached to page 1 of the return.

A resident is taxed on ALL earnings, including salary, bonus, separation, and incentive payments, tips, commissions and other compensation for services rendered — regardless of where earned. For example: Taxpayer lives in the City of Battle Creek but works in Battle Creek and receives a paycheck from the home office in New York City: 100% of this compensation is taxable.

If your employer did not withhold Battle Creek tax from your paycheck, you are still required to file and pay tax on those wages at the resident tax rate. You will also be required to make estimated tax payments if your employer does not withhold Battle Creek tax for you in 2021. Report on line 1, column B, the total excluded wages. All nontaxable wages must be documented on the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule and listed by employer on the Excluded Wages and Tax Withheld Schedule on page 2. A resident's wages are generally not excludible. An example of excludible (nontaxable) resident wages is active military pay.

1. Capital gains on sales of obligations of the United States and subordinate units of government.
2. The portion of the capital gain or loss on property purchased prior to the inception of the Battle Creek income tax ordinance that is attributed to the time before inception ordinance.

3. Capital loss carryover that originated prior to the taxpayer becoming a resident of Battle Creek are not deductible. Capital losses are allowed to the same extent they are allowed under the Internal Revenue Code and limited to $3,000 per year. Unused net capital losses may be carried over to future tax years. The capital loss carryover to Battle Creek may be different than the carryover for federal income tax purposes. Deferred capital gain income from installment sales and like-kind exchanges are taxable in the same year reported on the taxpayer's federal income tax return. Flow through income or loss from an S corporation reported on federal Sch. D is taxable. Attach copies of federal Sch. K-1 (Form 1120S). Residents reporting capital gains or losses must attach a copy of federal Schedule D. Excluded capital gains must be explained by completing and attaching the Exclusions and Adjustments to Capital Gains or (Losses) schedule.

Line 8 – Other Gains or (Losses) Other gains or losses are taxable to the extent that they are taxable on the federal 1040. Other gains and losses realized while a resident are taxable regardless of where the property is located, except the portion of the gain or loss on property purchased prior to the inception of the Battle Creek Income Tax Ordinance. Deferred other gains from installment sales and like-kind exchanges are taxable in the year recognized on the federal income tax return. Deferred gains must be supported by attaching a copy of federal Form 6252 and/or Form 8824. Residents reporting other gains and losses must attach a copy of federal Form 4797. Flow through income or loss from an S corporation reported on federal Form 4797 of a resident is taxable. Attach copies of federal Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S). Use the Exclusions and Adjustments to Other Gains or (Losses) schedule to compute exclusions and adjustments to other gains and losses reported on your federal income tax return.

Line 9 – IRA Distributions In column A enter the IRA distributions reported on federal Form 1040. Premature IRA distributions (Form 1099-R, box 7, distribution code 1) and IRA distributions made to a decedent's beneficiary other than the decedent's spouse (Form 1099-R, box 7, distribution code 4) are taxable. Exclude in column B, IRA distributions qualifying as retirement benefits: IRA distributions received after age 59½ or described by Section 72(t)(2)(A)(iv) of the IRC and all other excludible IRA distributions. The Exclusions and Adjustments to IRA Distributions schedule is used to document excluded IRA distributions. The conversion of a traditional IRA to a ROTH IRA is taxable to a resident (Form 1099-R, box 7, Distribution Code, G) unless the individual making the conversion is 59½ years old or older at the time of the conversion distribution.

Line 10 – Taxable Pension Distributions Enter on line 10, column A, pension and annuities reported on federal Form 1040. Capital losses from property located in Battle Creek are allowed to the same extent they are allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. Unused capital losses may be carried over to future tax years. The capital loss carryover for Battle Creek may be different than the carryover for federal income tax purposes. Deferred capital gain income from installment sales and like-kind exchange of property located in Battle Creek are taxable in the year recognized on the taxpayer's federal income tax return. Flow through income or loss from an S corporation reported on a nonresident's federal Schedule D is excluded on the Exclusions and Adjustments to Capital Gains or (Losses) schedule. Attach copies of federal Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S). Use the Exclusions and Adjustments to Capital Gains or (Losses) schedule to compute exclusions and adjustments to capital gains.

Instructions:

- An extension to file does not extend the due date to pay tax. Tax paid late will be assessed late fees.

- Line 2: Enter the total payments that you expect to report on your 2022 Form BC-1040, page 2, line 4, not including the extension payment reported on line 3 of this form.
- Filing date: The income tax ordinance limits an extension to SIX months from the original due date.

Related Information:

- Federal extension: Filing a federal extension (Form 4868) with the Internal Revenue Service does not grant an extension of time to file a city income tax return.

Payment:

- An extension is automatically granted upon payment of the balance due (line 3); failure to pay the balance due invalidates the extension request; an extension filed without a payment will not be accepted.
- Interest and penalty will be assessed on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted.
- Penalty may be waived by the Income Tax Administrator if the tax paid by the original due date is not understated by more than 5% of tax or the taxpayer can show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.
